

HIGHLAND PARK IS

FORMALLY ANNEXED.

---

The Mayor and the City Commissioners met yesterday morning and passed a formal order annexing Highland Park to the city of Dallas. A. S. Hardwicke, City Attorney, prepared and presented the resolution.

"It is now Highland Park's move," Mr. Hardwicke said. "And that suburb will now become a part of the city unless its citizens make use of their right to contest the charter amendment by injunction proceedings."

C. M. Smithdeal, counsel for Highland Park, is in the city now and probably will take part in whatever action is contemplated.
